Dear Economic Development Professional,

I am pleased to announce the creation of our new firm – Garner Economics LLC, a full-service company providing innovative economic development solutions in a competitive global market. Our strengths in site selection, industry targeting, strategic planning and organizational development are stronger than ever with the addition of several new key staff members. But our grounding in analytical and marketing research to inform our work continues to be what sets us apart from other organizations and firms.

Coupled with our creative approach to developing strategic planning, Garner Economics is equipped to help our clients benefit from years of versatile and invaluable experience, including my own 29 years in economic development and Chamber of Commerce practices. Here's what we now offer you at Garner:

- Site location and incentive negotiations for corporate clients
- Locational audits and economic assessments
- Industrial and business park site planning
- Global business development strategies and cross-cultural training
- Comprehensive economic development strategies
- Business and industry target identification
- Organizational management consulting and training
- Support through speaking engagements
- Workforce evaluation
- Economic impact analysis
- Innovative Community Development
- Research and Science Park Development
- Development of plan implementation guidelines

We are excited about the new structure and focus we offer at Garner Economics and would be honored to speak with you in person about our capabilities and how our services could benefit your organization. Please take a few minutes to visit our website www.garnereconomics.com to learn more about us.

Sincerely,

Jay Garner, President and CEO
